

Compost Hopper / Conveyor

Hopper, conveyor system loading compost into screen for processing.

The compost product should be completely stabilized, and not producing high internal temperatures prior to distribution.

Rule of thumb

The closer the product resembles commercial humus, the quicker the public will accept it.